

Basic principles of editorial policy of International Scientific Journal
«Mechanism of Economic Regulation»
(ISJ 'MER')

The Editorial Board of ISJ 'MER' supports combining scientific and methodical, scientific and methodological, and practical aspects of scientific research. The basic principles of editorial policy are: relevance, reliability, validity, scientific novelty, innovation, impartiality and objectivity of the published articles.

Topic of the article submitted for publication must meet the scientific directions of the ISJ 'MER'. Articles should not contain overt or covert advertising (antiadvertising). The Editorial Board reserves the right to edit submitted articles to ensure conformity with the texts grammar, spelling, stylistic and logical rules, as well as accessibility for the audience. The Editorial Board reserves the right not to publish articles in case they are not relevant to the topic of the ISJ 'MER', biased, politically engaged, include false information and do not correspond to generally accepted ethical standards and applicable regulatory and legal acts of Ukraine.

Author, providing article for publication, automatically confirms that the article submitted for publication is given for first time and only to ISJ 'MER', is a result of his personal research and any usage in these article of research of other researchers or other sources of information arrange in accordance with the applicable requirements of Ukrainian legislation and international practices. Articles can be accepted for publication only if the author agrees with the open access to his article via Internet: a web-site of ISJ 'MER', scientometric databases and portals of the Ukrainian and international scientific libraries.

Author of the article is responsible for the selection, the accuracy given in the article facts, quotations, statistics, dates, names, place names and other information, as well as disclosure of data that can not be open to the public.

Any reprinting, copying, publication or further public dissemination of material published in ISJ 'MER' is permitted only with the consent of the author, the Editorial Board (publisher) and a reference to the published material.

All materials pass the two-level reviewing system: external and internal (secret) reviewing.

Procedure of consideration and publication of the article:

- 1) author sends the article, which is accepted by the editorial board to consideration only on condition of accordance to requirements of Supreme Certifying Commission of Ukraine, State Standards of Ukraine and our journal;
- 2) the Editorial Board sends the article to an independent reviewer;

- 3) due to results of reviewing the article can be:
- a) accepted to the publication;
 - b) returned to the author for correction, that is required in a review;
 - c) rejected, as such which is not correspond to requirements;
- 4) only after the final concordance of all questions in relation to correction of the article (for example, re-reviewing, if a previous review required a revision) the article is considered accepted to the publication;
- 5) the Editorial Board decides a question about an issue of the journal where the article will be published;
- 6) the article is passed for publication;
- 7) the author is informed by the Editorial Board about the fact of journal publishing (via e-mail);
- 8) the author contacts the Editorial Board (via e-mail) concerning the receipt of the journal issue.

ISJ 'MER' is a public resource that accepted articles free of charge, according to principles of editorial policy and subject to their compliance with the applicable requirements of SSC Ukraine, DSTU and other legal acts of Ukraine.

All complaints, comments and questions about ISJ 'MER' should be sent via e-mail and regular post address.

Editorial Board of the International Scientific Journal
'Mechanism of Economic Regulation'
Department of Economics,
Sumy State University
Rymaskogo-Korsakova Street, 2,
Sumy, 40007, Ukraine
phone: 00-380-542-335774
<http://mer.fem.sumdu.edu.ua/> e-mail: economer@mail.ru

